Independent Living Trust

Course Aims

To give participants the necessary information in order to set up an Independent Living Trust. Such a trust enables an individual with complex support needs to use Individualised funding streams (i.e. Direct Payments, Independent Living Fund (I.L.F) to purchase their own community care support and employ their own support staff.

This course includes information on:

- How to get started (who to enrol, how to get stronger and setting long term goals)
- Developing Person Centred Trusts that place the needs of the individual in the centre.
- Up to date data on the range of User led trusts that are developing around the UK
- How to set up a trust fund
- What are Direct Payments and ILF funding streams how do you access them
- Involving your Local Authority in the development of a Trust.
- Accounting for the money, achieving successful outcomes and dealing with set backs

This course will include an individual follow up session to support you in taking issues arising from the day forward in an empowering and person centred way
