Providing for a Family Member

Course Aims

This workshop will provide guidance to those concerned about money and inheritance issues in order to provide for a disabled family member. This session will be led by a specialist solicitor who will provide information on matters you can address in order to provide for a family member both now and into the future.

Issues covered include:

- providing for the future in a will
- lifetime gifts
- how benefits are affected by inheritance
- trust planning
- the Court of Protection, Deputies, and Lasting Power of Attorney

Designed for

Parents and relatives of children and adults with learning or other disability.

Trainer

Claire Johnson (Leo Abse & Cohen Solicitors)
