Understanding Advocacy

Course Aims

Advocacy can help people make clear their own views and wishes and present their views effectively and faithfully. This session will give you an overview of what advocacy is and the role of an advocate. Attendees will gain an understanding of how services can work effectively with someone who has an advocate. The session will look at different types of advocacy including self advocacy and citizen advocacy.

Issues covered include:

- Different types of advocacy
- The purpose and principles of advocacy
- How to work effectively with someone who uses advocacy

Designed for

Anyone who works with or provides a service to someone with a learning disability who uses advocacy.

Trainer

Tracey Drew
