

Discovering Values

An essential workshop for anyone who works with people with a learning disability.

Course Aims

This course aims to help anyone who provides services to people with a learning disability to better understand and value their clients, and will enable you to empower people with learning disabilities.

Participants will consider how a strong values base is essential when providing effective services.

The session will examine the experiences of people with learning disabilities and give participants the opportunity to explore, and learn from their own experiences and work practices.

Delegates will get to examine different methods of working and what influences how we define and value people.

After this course delegates will be able to

- Understand some of the issues faced by people with a learning disability
- Use their own experiences to develop better services and working practices
- Recognise how society and the media impact upon how we value people
- Understand the difference they can make
