

Who I Am and What I Need from my Social Care Worker

Your views are wanted!

What do you think that your Social Care Worker (also known as a Support Worker) should know about you?

What do you want your Social Care Worker to do to meet your needs?

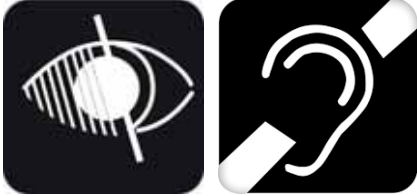

Carmarthen Leisure Centre
Friday 29 January 2010

9.45 am – 3.00 pm

Cathays Youth & Community Centre, Cardiff
Friday 5 February 2010

Anyone with a learning disability is invited

We also want to hear your views if you have a learning disability and have a sensory impairment.

A sensory impairment is where you have difficulty seeing or hearing.

The Care Council for Wales wants to ask you your views to make sure that Social Care staff do a good job supporting you and caring for you in your home.

The Care Council for Wales are asking your views because they want to develop new Qualifications in social care. The qualifications will show that Social Care Workers do their job well.

Care Council for Wales and Learning Disability Wales are holding 2 events to ask for your views.

Your views will be sought using drama with Hijinx Theatre and Theatr Fforwm Cymru.

So please join us for a day of drama and fun!

A Social Care Worker or Support Worker is a paid worker who gives you support or care in your home.
